AN INQUEST TO BE HELD.

Coroner Will Investigate Death of a Street Car Victim.

Captain Boardman was last night endeavoring to communicate with a brother of Thomas Blake, the race track follower, who was struck by a car of the Columbia line, near the Benning race track, Sunday night, and died shortly afterward at the Casualty Hospital. The brother is said to be in the employ of the "New York Herald," and a member of the pressmen's union.

The police have indulged in comment at the expense of the person who notified them of the occurrence, through whose blunder, it is alleged, valuable time was lost in getting the injured man to the hospital. Lieutenant Daley says that when he was first notified of the affair the message over the telephone, a second message stated that the man was apparently still alive, and asked for an ambulance.

The patrol wagon was hurried to Fifteenth and H Streets and took the unconscious man to the Casualty Hospital, where he died shortly afterward. The inquest will be held this morning at 11 o'clock, at the New Jersey Avenue police station, when the matter will be thoroughly enquired into.

The man was poorly dressed and had only some crackers and cheese in his pockets at the time of the accident.

POLICE INSPECTION BEGINS.

Belts, With New Designed Buckles, Issued to the Force.

The annual inspection of the Police Department was commenced yesterday afternoon, with Col. Burton R. Ross, Captain Heffner and Maj. Richard Sylvester as the committee of inspection. They will be joined today by Commissioner Biddle. The men were thoroughly prepared for a most rigid inspection, and every button shone.

New belts and buckles had been issued, and were put on for the first time for the inspection. The belt buckles are of an entirely new design and are plated with German silver.

The First, Second, Fifth and Sixth precincts were inspected yesterday, and it will require two days more in which to with the remainder.

FIRE INTO A CROWD.

A Scranton Non-Union Conductor Uses Revolver on a Mob.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 2.—Four shots were fired by a non-union street car conductor this evening as a result of an attack by rioters upon a South Main Avenue car.

The assault on car No. 201 was made by a crowd of boys and young men at 6:45 o'clock this evening in front of No. 32 School. The stones thrown shattered the car windows and came dangerously near the conductor.

The latter drew a revolver and began to shoot. The crowd broke into a run and the conductor chased the rioters for nearly a block before he gave up.

CARELESS WITH A SHOTGUN.

William Ricks' Right Hand Badly Lacerated by Shot.

The reckless handling of a shotgun Sunday afternoon sent William Ricks to the Emergency Hospital with a badly lacerated right hand.

Ricks is a butcher, and lives on the Canal Road above Georgetown. Sunday he was hunting in the marshes along the Virginia shore of the Potomac.

He sat down to rest, and when he arose caught his gun over his muzzle. In lifting it the trigger caught in a twig, and the gun was discharged, the lead passing through his hand and several of the shots penetrating his right chest.

PASTOR'S HOME ROBBED.

Thieves Got His Valuables While He Was Conducting Services.

While he was conducting services in the Concordia German Lutheran Church Sunday night, the house of the pastor, the Rev. Paul A. Menzel, adjoining the church at 1920 G Street northwest, was entered and about $30 in money taken.

A desk in the pastor's study was forced open and $25 and 100 2-cent stamps stolen. A pocketbook containing $15 and several air tickets was taken from the dining room.

RETURNS TO ST. ELIZABETH'S.

Mrs. Mackey Voluntarily Accompanies an Asylum Employee.

Mrs. Katherine S. Mackey was returned to the Government Hospital for the Insane yesterday evening, voluntarily accompanying an attendant of the institution from the home of a former Mrs. Mackey, near Rosslyn, Va.

An effort of Judge Thomas J. Mackey, her husband, earlier in the day to induce her to return was ineffectual. Mrs. Mackey disappeared Saturday evening while being escorted from Chase's Theatre, where she had attended a performance, as she had frequently done on previous occasions, in company with an attendant from the institution.

BIT HIS FATHER'S NOSE.

John Caton Sent to Jail for 180 Days for the Assault.
